

Catarrh

Is a complaint so common that comparatively few people are entirely free from it, so insidious that it gains a firm hold almost before its victims are aware of its presence, so dangerous as to seriously threaten the general health, and liable if neglected, to develop into bronchitis or consumption.

It is a mistake to consider catarrh merely a local trouble. It is unquestionably constitutional—a disease of the blood. As edily for catarrh is testified to by many people whom it has cured, not for a time only, but permanently.

"For three years I have been troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla and I thought I would try it. I took two bottles and began to see an improvement, and am now as well the water in a reservoir breaks through the bank at its weakest point, so the catarrhal poison in the blood discharges where there is the least resistance. Hence there may be catarrh of the head, of the bowels, or of any other point where the mucous membranes are found. Diarrhea and dysentery are but a manifestation of catarrh of the bowels.

The way to cure catarrh is to remove

GIRL'S HAIR IN BOAT

Caught to Cleats on the Bottom

GRUESOME TESTIMONY

In the Trial of Chester Gillette—Strength of State's Case Against Gillette May Force Plea of Murder in the Second Degree.

Herkimer, N. Y., Nov. 24.—With much gruesome detail, Robert Morrison, the boatman who rented Chester Gillette the skiff in which he went rowing with Grace Brown on Big Moose lake, told in court yesterday in Gillette's trial for murder how he found the overturned boat and evidence of what was believed a double accidental drowning.

Boatman Morrison went out to find the boat the day after the tragedy. Gillette had not returned with the skiff and Morrison rowed around the lake until he came to South Bay. There, floating in the water, was the overturned boat and near by a man's straw hat. Half resting on the bottom of the boat and partly submerged in the water was the silk cape coat of the drowned girl. The case was a part of her wedding trousseau.

"I saw nothing of the man or woman," said Morrison, "but looking on the inside of the skiff I saw quantities of hair caught in the cleats. I gathered some of it together and gave it to my sister."

The state will try to prove that after Gillette had knocked the girl to the bottom of the boat he beat her to death. In his haste to throw her overboard, it is claimed, her hat, which had become entangled in the cleats, was torn from her scalp as Gillette quickly lifted the body over the side of the skiff.

The strength of the state's case against Gillette may force the defense to interpose a plea of murder in the second degree. Report had it early yesterday

What Do They Cure?

The above question is often asked concerning Dr. Pierce's Great Peppermint Cure. It is a powerful yet gentle yet invigorating tonic and cathartic, and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the throat, lungs, stomach, bowels, bladder, and other pelvic organs.

The answer is: "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most potent alternative of blood-purifier, and tonic or invigorator and acts especially favorably in a curative way upon all the mucous lining surfaces, as of the throat, lungs, stomach, bowels, bladder, and other pelvic organs.

TAKE RECESS OF TEN DAYS

Vermont Legislature Adjourned Yesterday Afternoon

APPOINTMENTS MADE

Clash Between Representative Senter of Montpelier and President Prouty of Joint Assembly on the Benning-ton County Fight.

Montpelier, Nov. 24.—Each with $120 safely tucked away, the legislators slipped out of Montpelier last evening, bound for the Thanksgiving turkey at home. They had a short session yesterday afternoon, during which the joint assembly witnessed a warm scrap between Mr. Senter of Montpelier and Lieutenant Governor Prouty over parliamentary procedure, and the Senate acted on several appointments by the governor.

The flurry in the House came about over two reports regarding the state's attorney fight in Bennington county, the majority report saying that no one would be declared elected state's attorney until the ballots had been actually counted, and the minority report, signed by 23 members, that William J. Neugher was elected, the vote standing 2,126 to 2,114 to William B. Daley. Mr. Senter moved the adoption of the minority report and was promptly ruled out of order on the ground that the joint assembly had authority to receive the report, but could take no action on it.

Mr. Senter appealed on this ruling and by vote of the assembly the chair was sustained. Then Mr. Senter raised the point of no quorum and after two counts it was found that there was a quorum present. The vote sustaining the chair was 85 to 24. As the result of this position by the legislature, and the adjournment until after December 1, there will be no state's attorney in Bennington county until the successor of the present office, W. B. Daley, is appointed either by the governor or by the state judges.

Following the report of the joint canvassing committee on its examination of the county votes, the joint assembly re-elected the old court of claims as follows: Frank Plumley of Northfield, Frank C. Williams of Newport and Linn Leavens of Cambridge.

When the joint assembly adjourned, the two branches resumed their sittings. In the House Mr. Bardeen of Wallingford, for the committee on corporations, introduced a bill to incorporate the Vermont Improvement Association. The same body passed the bill relating to the return of inventories and also the bill to discontinue portions of the Hazen road in the towns of Hardwick and Walden. Last Governor Proctor should find it necessary to veto the bill to incorporate "Burn & Fletcher, Incorporated."

The House was asked to return the measure to the Senate for revision.

The following appointments by the governor were approved by the Senate just before adjournment:

C. W. Gates of Franklin, state road commissioner for two years.

H. G. Thomas of Stowe, state fish and game commissioner for two years.

E. H. Porter of Wilmington, trustee of the state insane asylum for six years.

Roger Hurlburt of Hyde Park, trustee of the Vermont industrial school for six years.

Harry J. Stannard of Barton Landing, trustee of the Vermont industrial school for six years.

Gibson of Brattleboro and M. M. Stocker of Danville, board of visitors to Northwick university for two years.

C. H. A. Stafford of Morrisville, trustee of the state insane asylum for two years.

N. K. Chaffee of Rutland, director of the state prison and industrial school for six years.

Approved by the Governor.

WAR ON WHITE SPREADS.

Attack Planned on His Foreign Prestige.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 24.—The hostile feeling towards Count Witte held by almost all the members of the present cabinet, combined with the distrust inspired by the supposed intentions underlying his recent return to Russia, has taken the form of an active campaign to counteract his influence. A former official of the ministry of the interior, who is now private secretary to Premier Stolypin, has been sent down to Berlin to start a press campaign against Witte for the purpose of undermining the prestige still enjoyed by the count in Europe and the United States. A further manifestation of personal enmity is to be seen in the report that steps are being taken to cut off the big stipend, in addition to his regular salary of $40,000 a year as a member of the Council of the Empire, which Witte has been receiving since his retirement from the post of minister of finance.

The Social Democrats unable to secure permission to hold meetings to discuss their own party programme, have been obliged to resort to the subterfuge of taking the programmes of their opponents as subjects for discussion. The first meeting under this arrangement to be permitted by the police will be held today, and the programmes of the Octobrists and Peaceful Regenerationist parties will be discussed. Prominent Constitutional and Social Democrats will take advantage of this occasion to appear before their followers.

Is Hard to Inventory Church Property in Mountainous Parts of France.

Paris, Nov. 24.—The taking of the church inventories, under the law providing for the separation of church and state, in the mountainous regions of France, where an abundance of snow has fallen, is progressing slowly, on account of the hostility of the population, which compels the troops sent with the state officials to conduct regular military operations, keep open their lines of communication and bring up supplies.

The authorities of Marseilles have begun legal action against Bishop Andrieu of that city, because of the violent language he used in protesting against the action of the authorities in order the church and state separation law.
